GARDENS FOR YOUNG

GARDEN SOCIETY WILL HELP BOYS AND GIRLS TO START GROWING VEGETABLES OR FLOWERS

Energetic, willing workers are daily visiting Headquarters, 1111 W. Broadway, offering their assistance in every way to further the success of the Glendale Garden Society. It is very pleasant and gratifying to the president, Mrs. Nanno Woods, to notice the unanimity of purpose and warm loyalty of the members. Many are already proving towers of strength and inspiration.

The Flower Show Committee of fifteen will meet on Monday evening, Dec. 13, at Headquarters, at 7:30 p. m., to plan out a program of exhibits, rules, etc. Very attractive features will be discussed, entries will be arranged to interest all ages, all conditions and all abilities. Young people especially, and their parents, are asked to look out for succeeding notices in the Glendale Evening News. Many pleasant surprises will be announced, in the way of prizes offered for young people's handiwork. Mr. A. Hommel has very kindly offered to give a demonstration to any group of boys, showing them how to make—but that is a secret until next week.

This is the time of year when there are few flowers to be found in our gardens. Still a few odd blossoms rear their dainty heads here and there, and a little art displayed in judicious arrangement of flowers with the green of coprosma, cypress, ferns, smilax, or asparagus plumosus results in groupings of much beauty.

During the Christmas holidays our young people might busy themselves making a plot of ground for a flower or vegetable garden of their own. Perhaps they can mark off a plot in their own back yard; if there is no room there, there may possibly be a vacant lot next door which they can use.

Borrow a hand plow, or a spade may have to do, and dig up as much ground as you think you have time or strength to cultivate. Dig it well several times, rake off all stones, then rake it again until the surface is smooth. Get two sticks and a long piece of twine and use this to make the edges of the garden perfectly straight; for tidiness is essential not only to the appearance of your garden but also to your own self-respect.

After all this is done, make up your mind what you want to plant, and sketch out your plans on paper. Perhaps you want all vegetables, or all flowers, or some of both. Miss White, the agricultural teacher, will be glad to advise you as to the kinds of plants you should put in. Or come to headquarters, 1111 W. Broadway, any day after school, and ask Mrs. Woods to help you. She might be able to give you some plants of larkspurs or coreopsis or petunias, to make your garden gay after a while.

If you want to plant seeds, the vice-president of the Garden Society, Mr. Freeman Kelly, can tell you what to sow and when to sow it. Read up in every Saturday evening Express what Professor Schufeldt advises you to do about plants and seeds; or you can find copies of "Rural Southern California" on file at headquarters. Begin to think about your garden now and to plan for it and to ask questions; you will find every member of the Garden Society glad to help you.

REVIVES OLD CASE

Two months ago as W. B. Jago, 1545 Pioneer Drive, was walking in the vicinity of Munson's drug store, corner of Brand and Broadway, he was suddenly run into by a man on a motorcycle. Mr. Jago was thrown violently down and sustained considerable injury. He was taken home and received medical attendance; but according to his own statement he was so seriously indisposed by the accident that neither at the time it took place nor since has he been able to recollect the appearance of the individual who knocked him down.

Appearing at police headquarters yesterday Jago appealed to the department to help him to find the individual who injured him. He stated that he had been compelled to pay a doctor's bill of $60 by reason of the accident. He also stated that it was possible that some of the parties in or about Munson's cigar stand might have recognized the party on motorcycle.

Chief Herald made a minute inquiry into the time and manner of the accident. It was ascertained that it took place on Oct. 11. Patrolman Hollenbeck was detailed to investigate the case. It is feared that, on account of the time that has elapsed since the accident, it will be next to impossible to ascertain the facts. No report of the accident had reached the police until Mr. Jago himself appeared yesterday.

WASHINGTON TO DESIRE RECALL OF AMBASSADOR ZWEIDENK ON ACCOUNT "PERNICIOUS ACTIVITIES"

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 11.—Acting Austrian Ambassador Zweidenk may be recalled at any moment. It is believed that he will be requested to get out of this country by Monday. It is stated that a request to that effect has been cabled to Vienna. It is alleged that Zweidenk, who is temporarily succeeding Dumba had planned the misuse of American passports.

GERMAN LEADER IN CONSTANTINOPLE

VON MACKENSEN REPORTED TO HAVE REACHED CAPITAL OF TURKEY WITH BAVARIAN TROOPS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

ROME, Dec. 11.—Field-Marshal Von Mackensen is reported here to have reached Constantinople with two regiments of Bavarian troops and several heavy batteries. The Germans are said to have declared that it will not be long before they will have driven every British soldier off the peninsula of Gallipoli.

GERMANS AND TURKS FIGHT SIDE BY SIDE

TEUTON REINFORCEMENTS SAID TO BE AIDING MOSLEMS IN ATTACKS ON BRITISH AT DARDANELLES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

ATHENS, Dec. 11.—German forces are said to be aiding the Turks on the Gallipoli peninsula. They are fighting side by side with the Moslems and dealing heavy attacks against the British along the Dardanelles. The New Zealanders have repulsed repeated attacks near Krithia.

CAVE-IN ENTOMBS TWENTY MINERS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

TACOMA, Wash., Dec. 11.—Twenty miners were entombed here today by a cave-in at the Wingard mine, near this city. Eighteen of the men were extricated by a rescue party; but it is believed that the other two have perished.

FRENCH HOLD UP AMERICAN SHIP

GALLIC CRUISER TAKES TWO GERMANS OFF STEAMER SAN JUAN NEAR NEW ORLEANS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—A French cruiser today held up the American steamer, San Juan, off New Orleans, and removed two Germans from the crew. This was stated to be in accordance with orders to take all German subjects from ships' crews after December 8.

KEEPING BACK GREEK VESSELS

ATHENS REPORTS THAT GREEK SHIPS ARE BEING DETAINED IN BRITISH AND FRENCH PORTS

ATHENS, Dec. 11.—It is reported in government circles here that Greek vessels are being detained in French and British ports. This is held to be a measure of coercion to force Greece on the side of the Allies.

LAST DAY OF EARL DERBY'S RECRUITING PLAN SEES UNPRECEDENTED RUSH TO THE FLAG

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LONDON, Dec. 11.—Thousands of recruits are rushing to join the forces everywhere today. In response to Earl Derby's appeal the recruiting stations throughout the United Kingdom are crowded by a good class of young men. The officers are almost unable to handle the rush.

CRISIS IS AT HAND IN GREECE

ROME, Dec. 11.—While the allied troops are continuing their retreat in the direction of Saloniki, having evacuated Servia, the Germans are closely following. The Teutone evidently intend to invade Greece in pursuit of the French and British.

BETTER TIMES AHEAD

E. H. KERKER TURNS OVER $21,000 DEAL—SEES SYMPTOMS OF IMPROVEMENT

"I have just been successful in negotiating a $21,000 deal this week," said Mr. E. H. Kerker, Second and Brand, to a representative of The Glendale Evening News. "Of course, 'one swallow does not make a summer,' as the old proverb says, but this is the second deal I have had, of a substantial nature, within the past 60 days. That may not seem much, but it is really so great an improvement on things as they were during the summer that I have some ground for saying that I believe there are better times ahead.

"This deal is an exchange in which I acted for both parties. On the one hand Milton Hesse of Van Nuys traded a 10-acre, improved ranch with 5 acres in fruit trees, apricots, peaches, etc., a fine pumping plant and a 5-room house, on South Sherman Way; and on the other hand Mr. R. Z. Imler of Tropico traded two pieces of improved property on Sycamore avenue and Central and 8-room house; also 3 acres of unimproved property on Riverdale Drive.

"It is just a year ago that I handled a similar deal, in which I negotiated an exchange between Mr. Hesse and the former owner of the Van Nuys acreage. I am glad to be able to report this deal, as it shows that things are moving.

"Without doubt there will be a considerable movement in real estate before long. I have looked for it a long time, as have all my brethren in the real estate line. It is not that there is so very much movement in real estate itself as that there is more money available for loans on real estate. Six months ago we had to go hunting for loan money and it was not to be had even on gilt-edge deals. People had simply lost confidence and money would not come out of the banks.

"That is all changed now. People come to us with money and want to lend it. It is true that they ask almost 50 per cent profit and are somewhat unreasonable; still the fact remains that money is seeking employment whereas a few months ago it was not to be found at all.

"I feel sure that things are improving. I am advertising just at present for exchange, a 160-acre ranch in Antelope Valley, for instance. I have had several opportunities to get a trade on that property and the last trade was so good that I thought I had accomplished my object. It was partly a cash trade and would have been snapped at seven months ago; but at this time the owner turned it down. Confidence has returned; and that is an example of what is going on in many instances at present. People are not going to throw away property; and they are not going to accept a modest exchange. They feel that shortly they are going to get something better.

"Although I may seem to be a little out of the business center of Glendale, I am really so well known in this city, where I have resided during the past ten years, that I do a good business when business is good, and even in these dull times, as you see, I manage to get what is going. I am deeply concerned in the welfare of Glendale, having been secretary of the Glendale Improvement association, the precursor of the Chamber of Commerce. I look to see this city grow rapidly within the next few years, when we will all make up for what we have experienced just now."

INTERMEDIATE P. T. A.

The Intermediate School P. T. A. will hold its regular meeting Monday, December 13, at 3:15 p. m. The program will deal with social problems affecting the young people in the Intermediate grades, Mrs. Frank Grosvenor leading the discussion in "How Shall the Young People Spend Their Evenings?" Mrs. Meeker will take the subject, "What Effect Do Moving Pictures Have on the Young Mind?" A general discussion from the floor will follow. Every one is requested to bring a cup and plate as a donation to the Association, so that refreshments may be served both on this and future occasions.

SISTERHOOD

About thirty members of the Sisterhood class of the First Methodist Church and friends were entertained in the C. W. Ingledue home at 725 West Third street, Friday afternoon, with a Kensington Tea, Mrs. Ingledue presiding as hostess.

White roses and foliage were used in profusion in the living room; it was here that a most delightful musical program was given during the afternoon. Yellow chrysanthemums and greens formed floral coloring in the dining-room, where the buffet five-o'clock tea was served.

THINKS COUNTRY GOOD

One of the recent visitors to Glendale is Mr. N. L. Heacock, of Warsaw, Ind., who, along with Mrs. Heacock, is visiting his brother, Mr. L. A. Heacock, 518 Lomita avenue. Mr. N. L. Heacock and Mrs. Heacock have been traveling through part of the state, since leaving their home in Indiana some weeks ago.

"I have been farming in Indiana for 50 years," said Mr. Heacock to a representative of The Glendale Evening News. "I and my brother, Mr. L. A. Heacock, who is now a resident in Glendale, were born in Ohio, but the family soon drifted apart and went out over the states. My brother went to Kansas and I to Indiana.

"This is the first time I have been in California. I think a great deal of the state. Coming through the Sacramento valley I saw a fine, fertile agricultural country. I have also visited the country round about Whittier and I do not think I have ever seen richer black soil than is to be found in that part of Southern California. Such soil has infinite possibilities with proper treatment. The whole country round Whittier is in fine shape. I admired the beautiful orange groves there.

"When I have seen a little more of the state I will be pleased. The whole of California that I have seen looks good to me. The climate is excellent. It is a great contrast to much of the country I passed through when coming here.

"I intend to go to San Diego and see the country there and the Exposition. I am told that is a fine section and I am interested in seeing the Old Mission valley and the Mexican border.

"When we left home the first snow of the season had fallen. It was not a very heavy fall and it soon turned into rain. Our summer was very wet and disagreeable, but as autumn came on the weather improved. I expect when we get back we will find Indiana enjoying its winter. We intend to see as much of beautiful California as we can this month and will start for home by the first of the new year. I shall always look back with pleasure on this visit."

IN WHITE AND GREEN

Society has been enjoying a rather restful week with a promise of many gay events to crowd in the wake of every available hour until the chiming of bells tolls the glad tidings of Christmas once again. All of the affairs of very recent date have been marked by a pleasant informality, and with the exception of the Sophomore dancing party, which took place on Friday evening of this week, simplicity will mark social activities until the Eastern Star installation, which takes place Thursday evening, December 16, also in the Masonic hall.

The platform banked with potted palms and fern fronds, together with ropes of feathery ferns, and pink roses used at the windows with cascades of ferns falling from the center-room lights, formed a fit setting for the dainty, girlish frocks worn by the evening's hostesses and guests.

The Busch orchestra from Los Angeles furnished terpsichorean numbers, being marked upon dainty programs in class colors of white and green, bearing the school name and year, 1918. The grand march, forming many pretty figures, was led by Miss Katherine Lord and Montgomery Coole.

GLENDALE RED CROSS

With every augury for success in its work the Southern California branch of the British Red Cross Society held its first regular meeting, Friday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. J. L. Whitaker, 208 W. Ninth street. There was a very good attendance. The society was organized. Mrs. G. E. Walters, Louise street, was elected president; Mrs. Reginald Whitaker, secretary, and Miss Ina Whitaker, treasurer. Several new members were admitted to membership. The full membership is $5 yearly and the associate membership $1. Those desiring to become members are notified that the next meeting will take place at the residence of Mrs. J. L. Whitaker, 208 W. Ninth street, Monday, Dec. 20, at 2 p. m. It is desirable that members should use their efforts to increase the membership. Money is needed to carry on the work; worn clothing is desired for the refugees; old linen for the hospitals; knitted socks and mufflers, small pillows, sheets and comfort bags for the soldiers in the hospitals.

CARRANZA'S DIFFICULT TASK

According to President Wilson's address to congress Mexico is to be left severely alone to work out her own salvation. In order to force Huerta out of the country the constitutionalists organized the revolution. Gen. Venustiano Carranza was governor of Coahuila, appointed to that position by Madero. He was a Madero man and determined to avenge the murder of his chief.

There never could be any doubt of Carranza's sincerity. He was a well-to-do rancher and was heart and hand in unison with Madero's reform ideas. The question now is whether he will be strong enough to enforce the reforms, particularly agrarian reforms, that Madero failed to establish. Madero was not able to carry out the needed land reform, which included the division of land among the peons.

Carranza has to face this reform question as much as had his predecessor. Whether he will do so or not remains to be seen. It it possible that he may fall entirely into the hands of foreign capitalists, many of whom own vast oil and mining concessions in Mexico. He is likewise in danger of being dominated by certain American capitalists who are by no means unwilling to undertake the task of putting Mexico on its feet and money in their own pockets.

When Carranza was proclaimed "First Chief" of the Constitutionalist revolt, at a conference of revolutionists at Guadalupe, Coahuila, the famous "Plan of Guadalupe" was started. This pledged the Constitutionalists to avenge Madero's death and place a Constitutionalist successor in the President's chair. Land and other reforms were pledged.

It is now a serious question with Carranza how to carry out the promises he made at Guadalupe. Much will be expected from him. The peons, having sacrificed everything in the fighting of the past five years, will be insistent in their demands for some fitting reward. Nothing but a proper division of the land will ever satisfy them. Should Carranza prove nothing better than Huerta there is little likelihood that the revolution will cease.

Gen. Villa, at present deserted by some of his trusted lieutenants, is by no means out of the field. He has many admirers and if he can escape into the inaccessible Yaqui country he may string out a precarious existence, as he did previous to the present revolution, and come out at the psychological moment to head another movement. Villa is a man of great resource. Naturally the cutting off of his supplies of ammunition and the opening up of that source to Carranza has put him at an immense disadvantage. It is all very well to stigmatize Villa as a bandit. At the same time it should not be forgotten that George Washington himself was so styled at one time by his enemies.

Under such conditions it can easily be seen that the task that awaits Carranza is by no means easy or light. If he conscientiously tries to remedy the evils of the country and to relieve the position of the peon he may turn out to be the savior of his country. If not he may face exile or even murder, like Madero.

CHANGES IN WEDDING RINGS

For centuries the plain gold wedding ring has been the symbol of unending love and constancy. That chaste emblem, one of the most ancient and basic symbols of all religions, has gleamed its message of orthodox love and marriage from the myriad hands of happy brides and wifes all down the ages.

It remained for this age of divorce and irreverence to change the fashion of the wedding ring and substitute for it a meretricious ornament of platinum or other metal, fantastically adorned with myrtles, vines or orange blossom and set with diamonds. It is not astonishing, when the proportion of divorces to marriages in certain cities run about one in three, to find that flighty, youthful, married women have announced that they will get a divorce just to have the pleasure of wearing one of the new marriage rings. Some of the writers on this subject say that it was a step toward emancipation when the brides of a few years ago cast aside the massive "bull's eye band" of their grandmothers and spanned their dainty left third fingers with a narrow circlet of gold.

"Ringing the changes on the wedding ring is almost bound to cause a bargain rush on the divorce court," says a New York woman writer. "All the brides of yesterday will be anxious to change their 'little-old-last-year wedding rings' for the lovely new ones. That, of course, is half joke, half earnest. Anyhow, it is significant of the easy attitude many modern men and women hold toward what used to be called 'holy matrimony.'"

UNIQUE CHRISTMAS PLAY

Children to be Feted by Club Women

If you aren't a wee lad or lassie, you will have to take a back seat, if you get any at all, at the Christmas play to be given in honor of the children of Glendale, December 28, under the auspices of the Tuesday Afternoon club. The management of the Palace Grand Theatre has placed that beautiful building at the disposal of Mrs. Charles H. Toll, the charming and efficient chairman of this Children's Afternoon. Grown-ups will be seated only after her little Highness and the diminutive Lord of all he surveys, not only in Glendale, but in the neighboring towns, have been given places of honor where they can see what's going on, and there will be something to see.

A cast of 100 costumed children, carefully trained by Mrs. Coral Harrison Sloan, a reader of great dramatic ability and charm, will present Dickens' Christmas Carol as a silent drama. This is the first time Dickens' beautiful story has ever been dramatized, and the entertainment will be entirely unique. The idea was conceived by Mrs. Coral Harrison Sloan, and will lend itself admirably to the pantomime and tableau presentation. For a number of years it has been the custom of the Glendale Tuesday Afternoon club to entertain the children of the members once each year. Children's Afternoon this year will surpass all the joyful times previously given the little folks, and all the children of the vicinity will be made welcome, irrespective of whether "mama" is a club woman or not. Pupils of Mrs. Coral Harrison Sloan will have some of the speaking parts. Mrs. Sloane, herself, will read the main interpretative passages of the play. The musical setting and vocal solos introduced are in charge of Miss Ruby Dale, a local musician of note.

MRS. LINDSAY A DRAWING CARD

At a most interesting meeting of the Political Science section, held on Wednesday, enthusiastic plans were laid for the civic improvement work which the section will bend every effort to accomplish.

Orange Grove avenue, Pasadena, a street known all over the world, owes much of its beauty to the fact that every other tree is a pepper tree. Neither has it been found that lawn or walk has been injured by them. Riverside and Redlands have their beautiful drives of pepper trees alternating with palms. It would be a simple matter to make Glendale more attractive. Let us begin by giving her at least one beautiful drive on Central avenue, from Riverdale Drive to the mountains. The uniform planting of pepper trees on this street, not supplanting the trees already there, would soon give our little city a drive of which we could justly be proud.

Eagle Rock has the most systematic tree planting system of any of our neighbors and Glendale will soon be surpassed in civic beauty unless earnest effort is extended in tree planting.

After a pepper tree drive is established on Central avenue other favorable streets could follow, until we would have a city whose appeal the visitors could not resist. Our public library was a child of the Tuesday Afternoon club, let the women of that organization lend their assistance and in a few years they will have another landmark to which they may point with pride.

Arrangements were made on Wednesday to appoint a committee to interview the residents on Central avenue.

After the discussion of the local civics work, two interesting papers were read, one by Mrs. Oliver O. Clark, "The Early History of Virginia," and the other written by Miss Elizabeth Ainsworth on the subject, "The Development of Self Government in Virginia."

The treat of the afternoon was the bright, humorous address, "Woman in City Government," by Mrs. Estelle Lawton Lindsay. With many humorous and pathetic incidents, Mrs. Lindsay showed women's need of dispelling their ignorance of city government if they are to rightly use and enjoy the franchise. Mrs. Lindsay gave her audience an illuminating idea of the need and scope of women's work in city affairs and paid high tribute to her co-workers in the Los Angeles city council. Our own city council was represented by Mr. Chas. Grist.

The next regular meeting of the Political Science section will be in the nature of a Christmas party, at the home of the curator, Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, at 106 Orange street, at 2:30 o'clock, Thursday, December 23.

Mrs. M. E. Johnson, a talented member of the Wednesday Morning club, will give clever monologues entitled, "A Tenderfoot in Politics," and "The Late Lamented Rooster Ordinance."

Mrs. Jones extends an invitation to all club members.

After two weeks of close confinement with a severe attack of la grippe Mrs. Charles Ravenscroft, of 541 South Kenwood, is well enough to receive her friends again.

van den Berg concert on December

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Roach of 1428 Lomita avenue were among the Glendale people attending the Brahm 9, at Trinity Auditorium, Los Angeles.

Mrs. E. T. Byram, Miss Byram and Miss Scott, all of 218 Glendale avenue, spent Friday with friends in Pasadena, Miss Scott remaining for several days longer.

Week-end arrivals at Hotel Woods are Charles H. Cutter from Hugo, Colorado, who will remain throughout the winter, and Mr. Konrad Holfelder of Eureka, Cal., remaining in the Southern part of the state indefinitely.

The Junior class of the Glendale High School is arranging for their class "hop," to take place in the Masonic hall on New Year's Eve. Heads of committees are Harry Glazier, floor; decorations, programs, etc., the Misses Katherine Phillips, Esther Schremp, Evangeline Hunchberger and Marjory Imler.

George W. Hyatt, brother of Mr. Wm. H. Hyatt of 1634 West Broadway, left on Friday via the Santa Fe for his home in Melott, Indiana, after a four months' tour of entire California. Mr. Hyatt was so favorably impressed with our state that he contemplates returning to spend all of next winter here.

Enchantress carnations of pink and ferns formed a pretty table decoration, when on Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Schremp presided at a dinner given in their cozy apartments at the "Harvard" on Hawthorne street. Besides the host and hostess covers were arranged for Mr. and Mrs. Jacob J. Schremp and daughter, Miss Esther Schremp, of Glendale, and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Mahar of Los Angeles.

Miss Hazel Colton of 411 South Central avenue returned last evening on the Sunset Limited from San Francisco, where she has been the house guest of the R. F. Longherys, Sr., of Mission Terrace, for the past two weeks. Miss Jessie Smith, president of the San Francisco Grammar schools, and Miss Colton were guests of honor at a large tea given in the California Building on California Day.

TROPICO

The annual election of officers of N. P. Banks Woman's Relief Corps held Friday afternoon in G. A. R. hall resulted in Mrs. Susie Peck being chosen as president, Mrs. Elizabeth Spafford, senior vice-president; Mrs. Elizabeth Friedgen, junior vice-president; Mrs. Abbie Haskell, chaplain; Mrs. Mayme Pollock, treasurer; Mrs. Alma Dutton, conductor; Mrs. Nina Richards, guard; Mrs. Louise Purnell, trustee; Mrs. Myra C. K. Shuey, Mrs. Louise Purnell, Mrs. Margaret Hibbert and Mrs. Hattie Tiffany, delegates, and Mrs. Elizabeth Spafford, Mrs. Margaret Sanford and Mrs. Roselthea Archer, alternates, to the convention of the corps, which will be held in Bakersfield in May, 1916.

The joint installation of officers elect of the Post and Corps will be held Friday, January 7, 1916, in the G. A. R. hall, to which members of the Post and Corps and their families will be invited. The annual installation dinner will be served at noon, by the committee, composed of Miss Cora Hickman, Mrs. Myra C. K. Schuey, Mrs. Mae Henry, Mrs. Ella Watson, Mrs. Margaret Hibbert, Mrs. Ida May Hoffman, Mrs. Lucinda Thayer and Mrs. Nina Richards.

Mrs. Louise Purnell, Mrs. Mayme Pollock and Mrs. Mae Henry, hall committee, with Mrs. Ada Atkinson and Mrs. Tina Hammond, decorating committee, will assist in arranging for the installation.

Under the auspices of the Mothers' club of the Acacia Street school, Mrs. M. R. Sleischman, member of the College Woman's club of Los Angeles, will give a talk on Christmas story telling, at the Acacia Street school, Friday afternoon, December 17. This brilliant address was given by Mrs. Sleischman before the College Woman's club recently and was received as one of the most interesting heard before this exclusive club.

The program will be augmented Friday afternoon by Eugene Boring, who will render violin solos. Mrs. Richard Todd, president of the Mothers' club, and Miss Mae Cornwall, principal of the Acacia street school, extend a cordial invitation to all mothers and school patrons to attend this meeting Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Nina Richards of Paloma St. entertained Mrs. Susie Ogier of Burbank, at luncheon, Friday.

PRECEDENT ADHERED TO

"Will you marry me?"

The fair lady at the man's side drew away with a movement that seemed almost prudish. Her breath came and went in little explosive jerks. She tried to speak, but no sound came from her lips. She tried once more, and then, with sweet tremulousness, she gave her answer.

"I will marry you if you get papa's consent," she said. "I never marry without that."—New York Times.

Y., who have recently arrived here and have become so delighted with this community that they have decided to remain here for the winter. and are now pleasantly domiciled in the Casa Blanca Apartments on North Brand boulevard.

RED CROSS SEALS

The Red Cross Seals have all the significance of the regular Christmas stickers, but that does not begin to tell their story. In addition to a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year greeting, the Red Cross Seals typify as nothing else of their kind does the real Christmas spirit of love and sympathy and service for a brotherhood of suffering humanity. They carry a message of helpful interest to forlorn hearts which cannot be directly reached, however much we may be willing. They give expression to the best impulse that comes from the heart of man—that of helpfulness to the unfortunate victims of poverty, misery and distress. They represent a real and potent effort to translate this spirit of helpfulness into efficient service toward alleviating the sorrow and suffering which follow in the train of the Great White Plague. They give joy alike to the heart of the sender and to the recipient and help to save the life and happiness of some less fortunate brother beyond the personal reach of either who has already or may become the victim of tuberculosis. And tuberculosis is so largely a community sin.

Placed on correspondence, Christmas gifts, pay envelopes, they carry at once a gladsome message, a cherished hope and a sympathy that cannot be misunderstood.

RELIGIOUS MANIA

Occupying a small cabin near Glendale and Maple, Charles Ahrens, an old man with no visible means of existence, is dragging out a wretched life, sustained mentally by ideas about the Second Coming and the battle of Armageddon. Ahrens has been behaving in so extraordinary a manner recently as to alarm parties in his neighborhood. His residence is covered with scripture texts and is utterly devoid of the comforts of life. A few withered potatoes seemed to be all the food he had when the police made an investigation of his condition. When asked if that was all he had to eat Ahrens replied, "The Lord will provide."

It was ascertained that some time ago Ahrens was sent to Patton by one of the Los Angeles judges, on a sentence of two years, but according to exalted tone. "They shall meet on his own statement the Lord did not allow this bondage to continue. "I was saved from mine enemies," said Ahrens, "and from the hand of them that hate me. I escaped even as a bird from the fowler."

Ahrens also stated that he had been confined in Los Angeles for a time but had been delivered even as the Apostle Peter had been taken from prison and from judgment by the angel of the Lord. He also stated that the Los Angeles police had cautioned him not to return to that city. "The snares of the wicked compass me around; but the day of deliverance is at hand; behold, He cometh in clouds and every eye shall see Him and they that pierced Him shall mourn because of him." "First shall come three kings riding from the north and then two kings riding from the east," said Ahrens, in an the great plain and then shall come the end."

This pitiable case is being investigated by the police with a view to having some proper care taken of Ahrens. "Men of this stamp," said Chief Herald, very frequently develop acute homicidal mania or suicidal mania. In any case this man appears to be a fit case for supervision."

RED CROSS CONCERT

A grand concert will be given at the High School auditorium Friday, Dec. 17, at 8 p. m., under the auspices of the Sons and Daughters of the British Empire. A splendid program has been arranged by the musical committee. A pressing invitation has been dispatched to Lord and Lady Aberdeen and their presence is expected.

Included among the numbers will be music by Watson's Pipe Band of Los Angeles. Who would not walk any distance to hear the bag-pipers and to witness those highland dances so dear to the Scotch? The committee has decided not to make any charge for this concert, but a silver collection will be taken up during the evening, the proceeds of which will be used in general relief and Red Cross work.

Everybody is cordially invited—there is room for all. Watch the Glendale Evening News for program.

HOLY FAMILY CHURCH

Sunday services: Mass at 8 and 10:30 a. m. Sunday school at 9 a. m. Sermon at 10:30.

FIRST M. E. CHURCH

Two striking themes will give Mr. Snudden, pastor, the inspiration for his sermons next Sunday. If you are interested in genuine Christianity, without cant, whining or solemncholy, you will find a cordial welcome at the home-like church; and you will find a gospel message for the day. "The Bible and Men About Women" will be the subject for the evening sermon. This will be a companion sermon to that of last Sunday evening. Man, what have you to say about women? Women, hear what men say about you.

At the morning service the pastor will speak on "Nails in Sure Places." A message of finality on some things. Can there be such a thing? Hear this message. Church location, Third and Dayton Court.

WEST GLENDALE M. E. CHURCH

3:00—Junior League, Miss Maybel Nisbet, Supt.

6:30—Epworth League, D. E. Johnston, Pres. Subject: "The Promise of Heaven." Leader, Mrs. H. L. Adams.

7:30—Evening Worship. Subject: God's Way Out of Darkness Into Light."

Prayer Meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30.

FISHERMAN'S CLUB AT BAPTIST CHURCH

The book of Hebrews will be outlined and expounded at the morning service of the Baptist church. Rev. Troy is a specialist on Bible study and aims to build up a strong Bible church without the extremes which the adversary of souls so often pushes well-meaning people into.

Between 4:00 and 5:00 o'clock the boys of the Fisherman's club of the Bible Institute will conduct an open air service at the corner of Broadway and Brand. Between 5:00 and 6:00 o'clock the ladies of the church will serve supper to the visiting gospel team. Six o'clock to 6:30 will be given to prayer; 6:30 the B. Y. P. U. will be visited by the fishermen. Then the grand service of the day, 7:30, will follow. Rev. Troy will outline and expound Philippians and the Fisherman's club will then take charge.

The Baptist Bible School meets at 9:30. Mr. Roy Kent is always pleased to welcome visitors. Classes for all grades.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The evening service is under the direction of the young people. A special program is prepared, which will close with the installation of officers for coming year. All are asked to help make this a great service. The hour is 7:30.

The morning communion and preaching service, 10:45.

Sunday School, 9:30. Class in Genesis, 6:30 p. m.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE READING-ROOM

A free reading-room is maintained by First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Glendale, at 415½ Brand boulevard, and is open daily, except Sundays and holidays, from 12 m. to 4 p. m., and on Friday evenings from 7:30 to 9:00. The Bible and authorized Christian Science literature may be read or purchased at this room. The public is cordially invited.

MABEL BRIDGES AT THE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Mabel Bridges will be at the evening service at 7:30 p. m. That is, Dr. Willisford will give an intensely interesting and strikingly original story of Mabel Bridges. This story will be the introduction and form an important part of the message of the evening.

The Book of Revelation will be the theme of the morning discourse.

The Sunday School assembles at 9:45 a. m. The C. E. meets at 6:30 p. m. A good meeting for the young people to attend.

A great rally of the Christian Endeavorers of the San Fernando valley will be held. Inspiring singing, good speakers. Come and help get ready for Eddie Young.

Music for the day: Morning, Trio, "The Lord Is My Salvation" (Verde) —Mrs. A. R. Chappell, Blake Franklin, Ralph W. Beers; evening, Anthem, "Hear My Prayer" (Smith)—Choir.

LUTHERAN CHURCH

Bible School at 10 o'clock; worship at 11, when the pastor will speak on "John's Testimony to Christ;" 6:30, Christian Endeavor, and at 7:30 the second in the series of the "Life of Jesus" will be given in beautiful picture and song.

Parents, bring your children and enjoy the religious instructions of these services.

DO YOU NEED ANY HELP?

If you do need some help to be a better man, woman or child, come to the meetings to be held every night next week, beginning with Monday, at 7:45, at the Glendale Congregational Church, when Eddie Young, the great Young Man Evangelist, will talk in a strong and pleasing manner about the higher things of life. Tomorrow, Sunday, at 3 p. m., there will be a preparatory meeting at the same church, to which every one is most cordially invited. These meetings are under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor societies of this valley. Adv.

DEATH OF MRS. VELVEY

Mrs. Viola Maud Seccombe Velvey passed away Saturday morning at 4:30 o'clock, at the home of her father, Mr. Harry Seccombe, 1411 Ivy street. Mrs. Velvey had been a sufferer from tuberculosis and her death was not a surprise to her friends. She leaves behind her father and two sisters. The sisters are in the east. Funeral services will be at the house, Monday afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock. The arrangements are in charge of the Jewel City Undertaking company. Interment at Forest Lawn.

WORK OF LATE ARTIST AWARDED

"Early Settlers" and "A Sylvan Landscape" were the two beautiful paintings and brush work of the late artist, Eugene C. Frank, to be chosen by Mrs. Frank to be hung in the Palace of Art at the Panama-California Exposition at San Diego. Well were these two subjects selected, for they have been awarded silver medals.

Oh, say, our new cut glass is here
As well as other Christmas cheer.
Toys galore they do appear.
Hand-painted china is not so dear,
Candy to take the place of beer.
All this to you may sound queer,
But for this store you'd better steer,
The price is right you need not fear.
We've a million articles in the store,
One thousand and 8 is on the door
It is still run by F. O. Moore;
Auto service as before.
Still the fare 5 cents or more,
Never enough to make you sore.
